

Effective January 1, 2010

Computers, Monitors and TVs are banned from disposal in Oregon.

As of January 1, 2010, computers, monitors and TVs CANNOT be disposed of in the garbage or at disposal sites such as landfills, transfer stations and incinerators. They must be reused or recycled. Anyone who knowingly disposes of these items can be fined.

If your garbage and recycling is picked up at the curb:

Don't place computers, monitors and TVs in your trash, recycling bin or at the curb. Electronics require special handling and cannot be collected via your regular curbside service.

If you haul your own trash:

Solid waste disposal sites cannot accept computers, monitors and TVs for disposal. A recycling depot located at a landfill, transfer station or other site may accept them for recycling. Check with the facility first.

(see other side for FREE recycling options!)

Oregon E-Cycles provides free recycling of computers, monitors and TVs.

Anyone can bring seven or fewer computers (desktops and laptops), monitors and TVs at a time to participating Oregon E-Cycles collectors for free recycling.

Households, Small Businesses and Small Nonprofits

Households, small businesses and small nonprofits may recycle more than seven items at one time. Please call ahead to make arrangements.

Larger Organizations

Larger organizations may be charged for items over seven. Please call ahead to make arrangements.

Organizations with large volumes of electronics to recycle can also contract with a recycler outside of the Oregon E-Cycles program.
